Mr. Burns said with interest the day's developments in Los Angeles, but said he had no comment to make on the added details of the Bain confession, or the rumor that arrests of one of the counsel for the McNamaras was impending.

After spending all of tomorrow in Cleveland investigating the dynamite cases, Mr. Burns will leave for New York, to continue his work. He said the investigation would be pushed in New York, Boston, Chicago, Indianapolis, Cleveland and elsewhere and would be thorough.

He declined to give out any details to his press. "I am not going to say anything," he said. "I am not going to say anything."

"I have no fears of personal violence," Mr. Burns was asked. "None in the least," he said. "Organized labor is my friend."

Asked tonight about Samuel Gompers' statement in New York that he was being shadowed by two of Burns' men, William J. Burns made a forceful denial.

"You may say to Gompers," said the detective, "that I would not have my men shadow him."

He informed that Mr. Gompers had been in Los Angeles, and came near wrecking the fair craft.

THE CONFIDENCE OF THE CITIZENS

Government Organization Sounds a Note of Alarm.

The following was issued last evening by the Good Government Organization:

TO THE CITIZENS OF LOS ANGELES:

The work of the campaign is nearly ended. It only remains to get the votes into the ballot box and counted.

While the sentiment in favor of Alexander and the rest of the Good Government candidates is undoubtedly very much stronger this evening than it has been at any time before, we at headquarters are alarmed.

The extreme confidence expressed by all of the workers visiting headquarters makes us fearful that many will slacken in their efforts and probably large numbers fail to vote because they think their vote will not be needed.

In the recall campaign after Harper had withdrawn, a similar feeling of confidence very nearly elected Wheeler, the Socialist candidate for Mayor.

It was impossible at that time to arouse the voters to the danger with the result that Alexander was only elected by a comparatively narrow margin.

Voters of Los Angeles, do not fall into this error again. Even if you are certain that Alexander would be elected without your vote, remember that a bare majority will not restore confidence in conditions here.

A big majority is necessary to do that, and the bigger the majority the more certain and complete will be the restoration of confidence in the future industrial prosperity and political integrity of the city.

(Signed) S. C. GRAHAM, President Good Government Organization, Los Angeles, Dec. 4.

COERCION IS CHARGED.

Former Honduran Minister Says This Government Forced Acceptance of the Morgan Loan.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 4.—That the American State Department encouraged the successful Bonilla revolution in Honduras last December, as a means of trying to force the Honduran government to sign the Morgan loan agreement, is one of the many sensational declarations made by Juan E. Parades, former special financial minister from Honduras to the United States, in a 200-page booklet, issued here by him today for presentation to Senators and Congressmen at Washington.

Senator Parades publishes the correspondence which passed among the governments of Honduras, Great Britain and the United States relating to the loan. He declares the American State Department virtually submitted to President Davila of Honduras the following ultimatum:

"The protectorate and the Morgan loan, or the revolution."

Davila, he says, was forced to agree to the proposition and ordered that the Morgan agreement be signed.

WAR RISK INQUIRIES.

Feeling of Disquiet Prevails London Over the Anglo-German Situation and Morocco.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

LONDON, Dec. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A feeling of disquiet has been caused here by the fact that a number of inquiries were made here today concerning rates on war risks in event of a clash between Germany and Great Britain. It is stated 7 per cent. was quoted for six months and 10 per cent. for a year.

The inquiries came from some of the important business firms in Germany, who say the political situation had not improved since the statement made by Sir Edward Grey in the House of Commons.

TRAINMEN IN WRECK.

DENVER, Dec. 4.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Fireman R. C. Rio Grande officials say the track will be cleared by morning.

OIL KING STEPS OUT.

John D. Rockefeller Resigns.

Archbold Is Chosen President of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Entire Rockefeller Family Is Omitted from New Board of Directors.

Changes Are Due to Their Desiring to Be Relieved of Heavy Burdens.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—John D. Rockefeller terminated his career as head of the Standard Oil Company today. With him also retired most of the conspicuous figures of the early days of the "oil trust."

Not a Rockefeller remains among the officers and directors of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, chief of the oil corporations, which was the holding company up to the time of the recent dissolution of the great combine.

William Rockefeller, William G. Rockefeller, M. Pratt, H. M. Flagler and E. T. Bedford, whose names have been prominent in the oil business, stepped behind the scenes today.

John D. Archbold, one of the few members of the "old guard" to remain, became president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and will control its destinies.

The termination of the business career of the man who has acquired a unique position in history and amassed what is generally regarded as the largest private fortune in the world, was perfunctory. It had been planned, in advance, although the plans had been kept secret.

ENTIRE GROUP AFFECTED.

Today's action affects not only the New Jersey company, but a number of other corporations in the Standard oil group. Although the list of officers and directors is virtually made over, the active management will be changed but little.

To what extent today's action is an outcome of the dissolution of the Standard oil was not authoritatively disclosed.

It is understood the decision of the United States Supreme Court merely hastened the retirement of members whose advancing years made it certain they could not retain their places much longer.

Mr. Rockefeller for nearly ten years has been only nominally associated with Standard oil. He has owned No. 23 Brookside, a position of honor, and his status usually were limited to a few minutes. After the death of H. H. Rogers, Mr. Rockefeller's visits became more frequent for a time until gradually responsibility was shifted to Mr. Archbold.

John A. Moffet, who was elected first vice-president of the re-organized New Jersey company, is one of the best known of the comparatively new men in the Standard Oil Company. He was president of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana when Judge Landis imposed his $20,000,000 fine upon that company.

W. C. Taggart, elected second vice-president, is under 40, but long ago acquired a reputation for marked ability in the oil trade. He was an independent refiner in upper New York State when he sold out to Standard oil, and was its export department, which is said to have developed enormously under his management.

From an unofficial source it is learned that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey will not change its present capitalization of $100,000,000.

Other officers and directors who for years have been associated with Mr. Rockefeller in the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey also handed in their resignations. These included S. C. Folger, Jr., as secretary-assistant and treasurer and Director T. J. Drake.

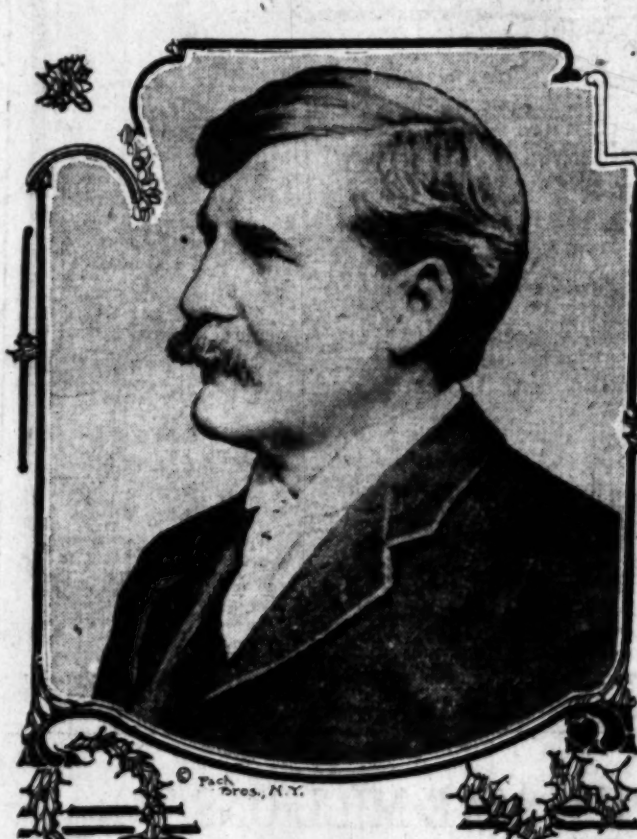

Mr. Archbold, the new president, also resigned as vice-president. The board of directors is reduced from fourteen to nine members.

Two new vice-presidents were elected. They are A. C. Bedford and W. C. Taggart. The other vice-president, J. P. Moffet, remains in office.

Mr. Rockefeller and his associates

John D. Rockefeller's Chief Almoner.

Rev. Frederick T. Gates, Personal adviser and manager of the charities for John D. Rockefeller, who yesterday retired as an official of the Standard Oil Company. He was recently the object of a bitter attack made by Albert and Leonidas Merritt, who in their testimony before the Stanley Steel Committee, told how the minister acted as a go-between in the negotiations between the Merritts and Mr. Rockefeller.

Reversal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Supreme Court of the United States opened the way today for the Federal government to prosecute coal land frauds in Alaska by holding that the general coal land laws of the United States, which forbade persons or associations making more than one entry, apply to the unsurveyed coal regions of Alaska.

The immediate result of this holding was the reversal of the action of the United States Circuit Court for Western Washington in quashing an indictment against Charles F. Munday and Archibald W. Shields on charges of conspiring to defraud the government out of Alaska coal lands valued at $10,000,000.

Justice Lurton rendered the unanimous opinion of the court. He considered the argument of the defendants that the act of Congress in 1901 superseded the general laws, so far as the unsurveyed lands of Alaska were concerned.

"There occurs to us no reason for assuming that Congress intended to repeal the policy of keeping open the right of every citizen to enter an tract and no more of the unsurveyed coal lands of Alaska that would not lead also to the abandonment of the policy as respects coal lands which had been surveyed," said the court. "An intention to depart from a uniform policy so long enforced in regard to the coal land should not be imputed to Congress unless the act of 1901 admits of no other construction."

Justice Lurton then proceeded to show that the act of 1901 did admit of another construction, namely, to "extend the general coal land entry laws which were then applicable only to surveyed lands, to unsurveyed lands."

The decision not only means that Munday and Shields must proceed with their trial for alleged conspiracy to defraud the government out of Alaska coal lands, valued at $10,000,000, but that similar indictments at Spokane, Tacoma, Detroit and Chicago will be pressed.

The substance of the decision was that it is just as much a fraud in Alaska as in the United States proper to hire dummy entrymen to take up coal lands.

Munday and Shields were indicted along with others on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government by seeking to procure for the Alaska Development Company and the Pacific Coast and Oil Company some thousands acres of Alaska coal land.

Justice Lurton said Congress did not intend to exempt unsurveyed lands from the restrictions placed on surveyed land.

Former Railroad Man AND LEGISLATOR DEAD.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

OKLAHOMA, Dec. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Maj. James Madison Hanford, Civil War veteran, forty-nine, a one-time member of the California State Legislature, and for two years paymaster for the Southern Pacific Company in California, died here at 8 o'clock this evening.

Death was due to an illness of several months' standing, the aged man being stricken two months ago while in his Pasadena home. Maj. Hanford was 82 years of age.

His wife was at his bedside at the time of his death, as was his physician, Dr. C. R. Nelson, his friend for many years. Maj. Hanford formerly lived in Oakland, but with his resignation from the employ of the Southern Pacific Company three years ago he took up his home in Pasadena.

Infirmities incident to old age caused a breakdown two months ago and he requested that he be brought to his old home here. When the Southern Pacific heard of his collapse, a car and a nurse were provided that he might be brought to this city.

Maj. Hanford came to California in 1849. He soon became actively interested in politics and was long recognized as a power throughout the State. He was a member of the California State Legislature under Gov. Leland Stanford in 1862. He was major on the Union side in the Civil War.

As paymaster for the Southern Pacific Company, Maj. Hanford was so far trusted by the heads of the great corporation that no bond was ever required of him, although he handled millions of dollars of the company's money during his connection with it.

He is survived by a widow and six children.

REBEL HERO UNDER FIRE

Orozco Accused of Sedition.

Head of Mexican Forces in North Charged With Aiding Gen. Reyes.

Letters Offering His Services Are Said to Have Been Intercepted.

Plans to Effect Waterloo for Madero by His Attack on Juarez.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

EL PASO (Tex.) Dec. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The rapid whirlpool of events which started with the round-up of the fourteen Reynista leaders Saturday has engulfed the one hero of the Madero revolution who was bigger than Madero himself.

Erig-Gen. Pascual Orozco, commander-in-chief of the Madero army of liberation and now commander of the Federal rurales in the northern war zone, is being charged with having opened direct negotiations with Gen. Reyes at Laredo and with Dr. Raphael Limon Molina, alleged to be the active head of the Reynista, in El Paso and the personal representative of Reyes at this strategic point.

Jose Cordova, Orozco's private and confidential secretary, made frequent trips to El Paso while Orozco was in Juarez, and is said to have been in close communication with Dr. Raphael Molina, the head of the Reynista junta in El Paso. These men, the government officials say, were in the closest confidences at frequent intervals, and it is believed by the officials that Cordova was acting for his commander-in-chief in these negotiations.

The letters which Er. Vasquez Gomez is alleged to have written to Orozco have been denied by Dr. Gomez repeatedly in Mexico City, but the letters caused much adverse comment, both to Gomez and Orozco, since the story appeared.

WRITTEN EVIDENCE.

Orozco is reported to have written five letters to Gen. Reyes at Laredo and San Antonio, offering his services to the counter revolution of Reyes. These letters were found in Reyes's possession when he was arrested in San Antonio. It is said, and are now in the possession of the secret service officers of the United States government and will be used against the aged general at his hearing.

Gen. Pascual Orozco, while in Ciudad Juarez a few days ago, came out openly and expressed his disgust with the Madero government on account of several things which had transpired since the new government had taken charge of the affairs of Mexico.

Orozco, in expressing his opinions, said that he had not been satisfied with Madero's plan since the signing of the articles of peace in Ciudad Juarez immediately following the battle, as he did not think that the peace pact had covered what the insurgents had fought for in the revolution.

PLANS OVERTURNED.

"Bloody Monday" the day set by the Reynista junta in El Paso for making the carefully-planned attack on Ciudad Juarez, found the fourteen alleged Reynista ring-leaders either in the County Jail or out on heavy bonds to answer before the United States Court on the charge of conspiracy to violate the neutrality laws of the United States.

Everything had been carefully planned to make the long-delayed and longer-expected attack upon Juarez the "Bloody Monday" of the Madero government. The money which had been deposited in the El Paso banks was to have been distributed among the recruits to the Reynista cause, the cached rifles and bombs were to have been unearthed and more rifles purchased.

The expedition was to have been made Monday night by way of San Lorenzo ford and into Juarez by the old San Lorenzo road, which passes the Juarez headquarters of Madero. A junction was to have been made with the Juarez Reynista forces and a combined attack made on the Madero garrison and the customhouse, where the Federal funds were kept. The banks were to have been raided, the prisoners in the Federal jail liberated and the town looted.

ATTACK CENTERED ON JUAREZ.

Gen. Bernardo Reyes was then to have been proclaimed provisional President of Mexico, his headquarters established in Juarez and the revolution was then to have been pushed on.

No Provision for Coast Defense Works by Treasury Department. Although Army Men Favor Them. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON (D. C.) Dec. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Stephen made another visit this morning to the War Department and interviewed Gen. Wood, chief of staff, and Gen. Weaver, chief of artillery, regarding the proposed fortifications at San Pedro. He has noted that the Treasury Department estimates submitted today contain no recommendations for new work on either coast and that many estimates by Gen. Hixby and other bureau chiefs either cut in half or entirely omitted by direction of the President.

In spite of this programme of economy both Gen. Wood and Gen. Weaver, as well as other officials in the War Department, assure Representative Stephen that they are anxious to see the fortifications constructed at Los Angeles, and they are evidently prepared to assist him as far as they may in his introduction of his bill calling for an appropriation. "I feel satisfied that they are more interested than ever," said Representative Stephen today, "and that they will give me all the aid they can. However, I am assured that this matter cannot be brought to the attention of Congress before the Christmas holidays, and I have practically decided to leave next Sunday or Monday for Panama to inform myself regarding conditions there. On my return I shall push the question of the San Pedro fortifications as vigorously as possible."

ACTION. SAYS PRACTICES ARE ILLEGAL.

FEDERAL ATTORNEY SUES TO ENJOIN THEM.

National Cash Register Company of Dayton Is Made Defendant in an Action Filed by the United States Authorities in Cincinnati. Below Cost Sales Alleged.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CINCINNATI (O.) Dec. 4.—Suit was filed in the United States Circuit Court here today against the National Cash Register Company of Dayton, O., charging the company is in a conspiracy in restraint of trade and asking that it be enjoined from further carrying on illegal practices. The government does not seek to destroy the National Cash Register Company as a corporation, nor to interfere with the legitimate business of the company, but asks that it be prohibited from selling cash registers and other registering devices in a manner that would prevent competition. The suit was filed by U. S. Dist. Atty. McPherson, who was assisted by Attorney O. E. Harrison, representing the Interstate Commerce Commission. Those named as defendants are the cash register company and twenty-eight officers, directors and district sales agents.

The government complains the individual defendants conspire through the instrumentality of the corporation are seeking to eliminate other manufacturers and dealers engaged in the business of making and selling cash registers and other registering devices. It is further charged that the defendants have waged vicious wars of extermination against other competitors and have driven them out of business, securing thereby about 95 percent of the cash register business. One of the main charges contained in the petition is that the company sold cash registers below the cost of production in various instances where competition was keen.

An Unfailing Prescription for Kidney and Bladder.

The following simple prescription has proven one of the best remedies known for weak, deranged kidneys or bladder. Get six ounces good pure glycerin, add to one-half ounce Murax Compound, one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu. Take one to two teaspoonsful of this mixture after each meal and at bed time. It will surprise how quickly this stops backache, rheumatic pains in joints, dizziness, pains in the groin, or other frequent annoying symptoms that are well known. For best results, good pure water should be used in this prescription, also genuine Murax Compound, which comes only in sealed wooden tubes. Any substitute will not work so well. Almost any good druggist has these ingredients. Any one can mix.

Bright's disease, chronic rheumatism or dread diabetes come from neglected kidneys. Treatment should be given at first sign of disorder to avoid the serious forms of kidney disease.

For children, in case of weak bladder, ten to fifteen drops, in a little water, at bed time will correct the trouble.

ASTOUNDING. STATE SECRETS FILTERING OUT.

High-Handed Methods of Stolypin With the Duma.

Arrest and Punishment of the Members Explored.

Late Premier Accused of Framing Up Case.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Many facts, astounding even to Russia, have come to light in connection with the dissolution of the duma in 1907, which involved the arrest of fifty-five deputies on the charge of treason and the sentencing of sixteen of them to hard labor. It was a very convincing case, ranging from fifteen years to life. Six of them since died and others are dying from exhaustion and ill-treatment. The matter is eliciting interpellations in the duma and further developments are expected.

SECRET DOCUMENTS. In 1905, M. Stolypin, then prime minister, deposited before a secret committee a dossier of documents concerning fifty-five members of that body of conspiring to cause an uprising of the whole garrison in St. Petersburg. M. Stolypin declared these men had received a deputation representing all arms in the garrison for the purpose of organizing an uprising. The duma, though it was a very convincing case, immediately appointed a committee of twelve members to examine the documents and report on them.

Seeing that the duma was against him, M. Stolypin, on the same night, ordered the arrest of these men, solving the duma on July 17, changing the fundamental electoral law, diminishing the number of deputies and practically altering the mode of election.

DEPUTIES ARRESTED. Fifty-five of the accused deputies were arrested and the senate, pressed by the police, together with the remainder to hard labor and the remainder to expulsion.

After M. Stolypin's death, the secret police came thick and fast. The investigation of the assassination of the prime minister by an agent of the secret police, the facts concerning the alleged military conspiracy of the deputies in the second duma.

It now has been proved that Senator Trusevich, M. Stolypin's confidential man and chief of the police, was the man who, together with Gen. Grasinoff, chief of the secret police in St. Petersburg, commissioned the secret police to organize the so-called military conspiracy.

DIES UNDER A CURSE. Fourth Marquis of Waterford to Meet a Violent End Is Drowned. South of Ireland Supremacy.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) DUBLIN, Dec. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The death by drowning of the Marquis of Waterford has revived an old superstition, preserved since his time, that he would die in the South of Ireland that day.

The story goes that the Marquis was brought in chains into the courtyard of the head of the Beresford family one day, and while his widowed mother on her knees begged for mercy, the boy was put to death. The mother cursed the Beresfords and prophesied that no head of the clan would ever die in bed.

This is the fourth Marquis of Waterford in succession to die a tragic death. His father was crippled for life in a hunting accident and committed suicide. His predecessor was found dead in a hunting box on the estate, poisoned. It is supposed, from seeing diseased shell fish, that the Marquis before him broke his neck by falling from a horse.

TOBACCO JUICE IN HER EYE. After Forty Years of Married Life Stockton Woman Files Suit for a Divorce.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) STOCKTON, Dec. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After having been married for nearly forty years, Mrs. Sarah Myers of this county has filed a divorce complaint against George W. Myers, in which the principal allegation is he persisted in spewing tobacco juice in her eye.

The case was brought to court by the jury testimony intended to contradict a statement made by Dr. Hyde in the previous hearing. Announcement was also made by Assistant Prosecutor Jost that the accused physician's entire testimony would be read to the jury.

MINER'S STORY PROVES A LEAD.

May Result in Disclosing
Election Fraud Scheme.

Thirty-four Ludlow Miners
Brought to City.

"Make Yourselves Useful," Advice Given Them.

The unearthing of registration frauds of magnitude may result from the arrest here of M. J. Sullivan last week. According to the District Attorney's office, he has confessed to coming to Los Angeles from Ludlow, Nev., with thirty-three other men, for the purpose of voting if they could. If they found that impossible, they were to "make themselves useful" for the Socialist party at the polls. Sullivan is credited with admitting that he and his associates are members of the Western Federation of Miners and the Industrial Workers of the World.

By the lead given by Sullivan's confession the secret service bureau of the District Attorney's office, working under directions from Asst. Dist. Atty. Hanna and Chief of Detectives Brown, expects to get a direct line on the "interests" either directly or indirectly responsible for the attempts at illegal registration in connection with the election today. Sullivan is in the County Jail. He is being held while his statements are being investigated. A man giving the name of William Burns was arrested with Sullivan. He has been released, but cannot leave the city, for detectives are watching him. Why Sullivan should be kept in jail and Burns permitted to enjoy his freedom was not explained at the District Attorney's office.

Sullivan and his party were employed by a mining corporation at Ludlow. About ten days ago they asked for a vacation. Some said they were coming to Los Angeles; others gave different reasons for coming to "lay off" for a couple of weeks. The mine officials grew suspicious, and communicated their fears to the local authorities. The headquarters of the men were located on East Third street. Sullivan and Burns were taken into custody. Then detectives were placed upon the case.

Sullivan is said to have admitted that since he came to Los Angeles he has been spending money given him by those who are alleged to have induced him and his party to come here "over the election." The other miners have had some money, besides being assured of their expenses while in the city.

Through the information given the District Attorney's office, it is hoped to connect the same "interests" back of Sullivan and Burns with other attempts at colonization of foreigners for voting purposes today. The success met with by the District Attorney's office in securing evidence through Sullivan's confession will determine largely the advisability of calling a special grand jury to investigate election frauds in general. It is the hope of the District Attorney's office to secure the evidence without putting the county to the expense of a grand jury investigation, if possible.

HARRIMAN ENDS WITHOUT VOICE.

LEADS BREAKDOWN AT HIS LAST BIG MEETING.

Thousands Fill Auditorium
and a Dozen Other Places to Wind Up Socialist Campaign, and Some Are Disappointed—Irvine Promises
a Big Victory.

Job Harriman's voice gave out about 9 o'clock last night. He was down and out, for he declared himself unable to speak above a whisper. He collapsed at No. 614 1/2 South Hill street. He tried to address an audience that filled that hall. The word was sent to the meetings that were awaiting his coming. These meetings were at once dismissed.

Harriman had been scheduled to speak at seven places last night. He was addressing his fourth audience, when the event came. He started at 6 o'clock, talking to a crowd at No. 132 South Spring street. From there he went to No. 621 South Spring street. When Harriman reached Eagle's Hall, audience awaited him at the Walker Theater, Choral Hall and the Auditorium.

The latter was filled, seats being at a premium fully half an hour before the meeting was scheduled to begin. The overflow went to Choral Hall and the Walker Theater.

Ralph L. Criswell presided at the Auditorium. He introduced W. R. Gifford, Wisconsin State Senator, and resident of Wilwaukee, as the first speaker. Then came Alexander Irvine, who prided himself that he is an "ex-preacher," with emphasis on the "ex," as he put it last night.

He predicted Harriman's election, as he has done every time he has spoken during the campaign. But last night Irvine grew so daring as to say:

"Job Harriman will receive 65,000 votes and George Alexander, 64,000 votes."

That prediction took the audience off its feet, for it cheered and applauded for fully two minutes. When it quieted down, and Irvine attempted to continue, it broke out again, this demonstration being much shorter.

Irvine had withdrawn from the Auditorium and Chairman Criswell was waiting the coming of Harriman, when a messenger brought the news that the Socialist had collapsed.

MAYOR URGES ALL TO VOTE.

To the voters of Los Angeles: I strongly urge every voter to go to the polls tomorrow and vote. That is the citizen's duty as well as privilege. Under our form of government it is only once in a while that the citizen has a direct part in the government. Tomorrow is one of those times. Study the candidates, make up your minds who are the better qualified to conduct the affairs of this great city. Then express that decision at the polls. Go to the polls as early as possible. The vote will be large and every moment of the day must be utilized. But above all things do not fail to vote.

AUTHOR'S DEATH IN TRAIN IS UNDER INVESTIGATION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Investigations to ascertain the reason for the death of Kellogg Durand, the writer, who died from drinking cyanide of potassium, November 18, on a train in South Boston, are being conducted in Boston and New York. The Equitable Life Assurance Society, that had insured a $110,000 life insurance policy for Durand, is making the Boston investigation and has held up payment on the policy.

The insurance company investigation was inspired by the fact that the policy had lapsed and that Mrs. Durand had obtained the day before Durand's death. In New York, the investigation is being conducted by the police.

Mrs. Durand had been an actress and playwright. She was formerly the wife of Robert C. Haines, the actor, and was married to Durand June 13, 1908. She gave her name then as Madeline Grenville of Chicago.

SALOONS CLOSE.

Make Reason for Fight Against the Ordinance Making City "Dry"—To Minimize Disorder.

Every business and most of the cafes that hold liquor-selling permits closed their doors last night at 8 o'clock, five hours earlier than required by the law. It was a surprise to the thirty who hadn't expected such a programme.

It was done because of the pending prohibition ordinance on the ballot at today's election. A meeting of saloon owners was held last week at which it was decided that every holder of a liquor permit should be requested to close at 8 o'clock in order to give all employees in the traffic ample opportunity to be prepared for work against the prohibition ordinance today. Another reason was that by suspending the sales of liquor last night the probability of disorder at the election would be reduced.

The same course was taken six years ago when prohibition was an issue and won the respect of the voters, who defeated the "dry" ordinance two to one. The liquor dealers think they just as great a majority think that the "dry" ordinance will be big time and some believe it will be big time.

BULLETINS OF ELECTION RETURNS

The Times will bulletin the election returns Tuesday night at the junction of South Spring street and Mercantile Place. The bulletins will be thrown upon screens which can be seen all the way through Mercantile Place, so that the crowds may stand there and look on without any interruption from traffic. Returns will be bulletined early and late. The Times will also give returns by telephone to all who call.

SUCCESS RESTS IN HEAVY VOTE.

Danger Only to Be Found in Apathetic Friends.

Abundant Facilities for Making Balloting Easy.

Chairmen Urge Full Vote to Save from Disaster.

This is the most important day in the political history of Los Angeles. It is important because the voters must decide for or against revolution in municipal government. If the decision is for revolution, an administration headed by Job Harriman and called by "Curly" Grow will succeed one headed by George Alexander and which measures up in the main to the standards Los Angeles has kept in the past. And these standards have been high.

There is but one thing that will prevent an overwhelming defeat of the beneficiaries of a campaign of slander and falsification, and that is apathy. The men and women who, believing that the votes of others will produce this salutary defeat, stay at home themselves, are the worst enemies of the city's safety because they shirk a responsibility that is the highest in American citizenship. They are worst because their shirking cannot be anticipated and prevented; to guard against their neglect is impossible. To arrest the consequence of it is impossible after the polls close.

Expressions from Chairman Lee of the Citizens' Committee, Chairman Graham of the Good Government organization and Mrs. George L. Cole, president of the Women's Progressive League, last night, all gave warning that overconfidence and failure to vote are the only dangers in sight.

The canvasses show a great Alexander sentiment. It exists in every precinct in the city. It is sufficient to write the future of Los Angeles for decades as one devoted to American government, if expressed in today's voting.

The trouble found by the political managers in the last days is twofold. The Alexander strength assumes too much. It assumes that the revelations of the McNamara case and Harriman's connection with it have knocked the bottom out of the Socialist organization and that its vote will be light. It also assumes that, even if the bottom is still solid in the Socialist organization, it cannot get out enough votes to win.

THE REAL DANGER.

In these assumptions is the real danger. Neither is true. The Socialists have worked desperately since the shock of the McNamara case was felt by them. They will fight to the last. They have intelligent, if unscrupulous leadership; are aided by hundreds of imported agitators and are more abundantly financed than any political organization the State has ever known. Harriman, in a statement last night, boasted they have circulated 8,000,000 pieces of literature in the campaign, of which 800,000 pieces were distributed in the last week. This literature alone is equal to $25,000 expenditure. They have had $250,000 to run their campaign. They have a large fund left.

The Alexander organizations are equipped with good facilities to make voting quick—to remove every excuse of the careless. They have 1500 automobiles in service and 5000 volunteer workers all over the city. There is full provision for seeing that the votes are counted as they are cast. They are fighting the most sinister foe the city has ever met—Los that has attacked the aqueduct, the power system, the harbor and the municipal railway, all necessary to the fruition of Los Angeles' great plans for a city of a million.

Under these circumstances it is astounding, in the judgment of the campaigners, that those who want Alexander and the ticket elected would hesitate a minute about voting. It is time when no excuse is fit, except absolute physical inability. Under these circumstances political managers hesitate to make predictions. They know what the result ought to be, but they dare not predict. There are 184,000 voters qualified to cast ballots. Of these, more than 80,000 are women who have not before voted. This first voting has its own element of danger, for the new voters may spoil their ballots. The number of these may be very large and if it is added to the other dangers, the chance of Harriman's success is enhanced. Women voters who, after all that has been published about using only a rubber stamp in marking ballots, ask for their husband's fountain pens to vote with, are likely to make a failure of their first attempt. There may be only a few who will try fountain pens, but there are others who may use pencils.

EVERY FACILITY.

There is no reason to stay away from the polls because of delay or irritation. The polling places have been conveniently located and the law will be enforced by hundreds of officers. There will be no trick or intimidation. The City Clerk yesterday delivered nearly 4000 ballots to the 317 polling places with all necessary equipment. Expedition for all has been arranged. From every viewpoint the conclusion is inevitable and stern that this is one day when every citizen of Los Angeles must go to the polls and vote (with the rubber stamp), to make it really the most important day in the city's history by forever burying class hatred and arrogant incompetency, the forerunners of strife and convulsion, distress and misery.

Purity and Freshness Combined in Cottoles.

Some cooking fats when first made may be pure but they don't stay fresh; being packed in tubs or loose-covered pans, they are exposed to air, dust, odors, and soon deteriorate. Other cooking fats make strong claims for freshness, but their purity is doubtful. Cottoles is made from the purest vegetable oil, amid clean surroundings, and is packed in a special air-tight pail which keeps it pure and fresh indefinitely. Air, dust, dirt or odors cannot come in contact with Cottoles and take away its purity and freshness.

"Say, Doctor, what suppose ails me, anyway?"

"Coffee? Why, I'm it 20 years, say Doc, quit I'm feeling bad."

"Now there goes those infernal twists in my side."

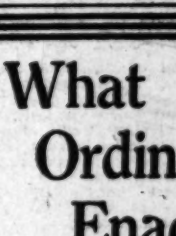

"Coffee congests the you say? So I've got Well, what do you know this Postum?"

(A month later) "Doc, you feeling fine, thanks, you did give me a score when I was a liver, but it was all true, I went on with Postum, I feel better in two days and I've quit the army of cranks for good."

"Sure, I belong to the army, and know when comfort is."

"There's a Reason."

An Earnest Warning to the People of Los Angeles

(ADVERTISEMENT)

This is the day you are to decide whether or not Los Angeles shall experiment with Total Prohibition. The choice is yours, though not of your choosing. There was no general demand for prohibition. Los Angeles was and is known the country over as one of the cleanest and best regulated cities in the United States.

In determining this issue, please remember that Prohibition is NOT new. In America it was tried and rejected 50 years ago. It has been tried and rejected by a dozen States and scores of cities since. Only last November it was rejected by overwhelming majorities in the great States of Oregon, Missouri and Florida. This year Alabama repealed prohibition after a 3 years' trial, and Texas voted it down.

If Prohibition was right, if prohibition prohibited, why did these great commonwealths repudiate it? Should this not be a warning to us? Can you point to any great State or city that has adopted prohibition within the past two years? Do we want in Los Angeles a worn-out, discarded theory made into law?

This is one of the great cities of the Union. It is a monument to the faith and energy of its own people. It has always gone forward. It has never gone backward. Shall we go backward now?

If Los Angeles votes for prohibition, we will receive a set-back from which we shall not recover in many years. It would advertise us to the world as a reactionary city, where personal rights and privileges are overruled by the policeman's club, where a mildewed fad from the early fifties holds sway in a 20th century metropolis.

Have you read the Prohibition Ordinance? Read it.

It is the most drastic ever written.

Pay no attention to the eleventh-hour recantations of prohibitionists who are now apologizing for the work of their own hands. Read the ordinance yourself.

It is a direct insult to every church which uses wine in the sacrament, because it attempts to make them criminals under the law.

The ordinance prohibits the use of wine in the sacrament at church. Read the ballot title on this page—that alone tells the story.

It prohibits delivery of wine, no matter where shipped from, to your own home. It prohibits your giving it to a guest on your own household table!

Do you want your church, or your home, raided by the police in a search for wine or beer?

Do you believe in that sort of law for yourself? Or for your church? Or for your neighbors?

Los Angeles is the most progressive city in the United States.

Does that sort of law fit our kind of city?

It is said, Prohibition is wrong. That it is a moral wrong. That it is a financial wrong. That it is a political wrong.

If Prohibition was right, it would be the law of the land. If it stopped intemperance, everyone would vote for it, Los Angeles first of all.

Prohibition divides a city into warring factions. It breeds hatred and discord, and makes united action for civic betterment an impossibility.

Prohibition is a dying issue, because it has not made good.

That is why Prohibition has been meeting defeat after defeat in all parts of the United States.

That is why it will be defeated overwhelmingly in Los Angeles today.

PROPER TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

The first thing to be done in the treatment of Catarrh is to begin the use of a medicine that will have a direct effect on the source of the disease; in no other way can any curative progress be made. S.S.S. does this more quickly and satisfactorily than any other medicine. It is the most penetrating of all blood purifiers, thoroughly, yet gently, expelling all catarrhal matter and impurities from the circulation, and by its fine tonic properties strengthening and building up the system in such healthy manner that it is enabled to overcome the depressing effects of Catarrh. Some local treatment is often desired to open the air passages of the head and nose and relieve the congestion and "tickling" of the throat, and other unpleasant symptoms. There are many helpful measures which may be resorted to, and there are others which may be harmful, and to aid Catarrh sufferers we have prepared a special treatise on the disease which will be of great value to any who suffer with this trouble. This book together with any medical advice free to all who write and request it. Take S.S.S. regularly and according to directions and it will certainly remove the cause and cure your Catarrh. S.S.S. is sold at drug stores.

Lighting Change Artist Confesses His Guilt.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James F. Long, aged 19, was arrested here today by Burns men's Theater on the charge of forging a draft for $5000 on the First National Bank of Chicago on October 27, last. From that day his travels have been found in brightlylighted places from Los Angeles to

New York. When he was taken to the Oak-street station he had 10 cents

in his pockets and none overcoat.

He signed a confession later, in the office of the Burns Detective Agency, operatives of which have been following him for the American Bankers'

Association, in which he admitted the crime and detailed his wanderings

Long went to Kansas City, Denver,

San Francisco and Los Angeles. He developed a faculty of changing his clothes in taxicabs to throw any one off his trail. He loved automobiles, and in San Francisco he bought a car, which he sold later. He registered in various hotels as James P. Duncan,

Louis Cole and George Duncan.

Long, with a bellhop named Billie

McWilliams, whom he had picked up in San Francisco, took a long jump to New York. They reached here

November 15.

It was learned that McWilliams had $100 of Long's money saved into his coat. Detectives expect to arrest the bellhop in a day or two.

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: "You may, without eliminating smiles from your face, cultivate the features," said the Beauty Specialist, "as she spoke that, while carrying a most pleasant expression, there were none of the 'smile lines' around the corners of the mouth or eyes. WHOSE VIEWS DID COURT UTTER?

ATTORNEY ALLEGES HIS HONOR'S WIFE PLAYS PART.

Divorce Suit Will Be Reviewed Because Counsel for Defense Thinks the Judge's Spouse Took Too Much Interest in Young Woman's Cause.

Just what part, if any, Mrs. George E. Church, wife of Superior Judge George E. Church, played in the ruling the latter handed down last summer in favor of beautiful Hazel M. Keating, awarding her in addition alimony approximating $25,000, may be shown Monday when Mrs. Keating's deposition will be taken with reference to her intimate acquaintance with Mrs. Church. An order to this effect was made by Judge Monroe in Department Six yesterday.

In support of a motion for a new trial, three affidavits bring into the case the name of Mrs. Church, and the contention of the attorney for Keating is to show that she unduly influenced the husband, the judge, in making his ruling. Judge Church occupied the divorce bench temporarily in Los Angeles at the time the Keating case came to trial.

A Wisconsin McDonald, representing Keating, has filed a new affidavit in the famous case, alleging that Mrs. Church was observed conversing frequently with Mrs. Keating while the trial was in progress, sitting at the bar reserved for the attorneys and acting as a go-between in the private chambers. Undue influence by reason of her intimacy with Mrs. Keating is one of the main points in the contention of the defense.

To clear this allegation Judge Monroe ordered Mrs. Keating to appear in court. A motion vacating the order extending the time for a new trial was denied.

Among other reasons given for reviewing the testimony by Keating are excessive alimony, irregularities in the proceedings preventing a new trial, new evidence and decision of the court contrary to law.

GUILITY OF FRAUD.
Federal Prisoner Admits Swindling Families of Persons Deceased by Ancient Ruse—Other Court Matters.

Jack Shaw, indicted yesterday in the United States District Court for using the mails to defraud, pleaded guilty before Judge Welborn and was sentenced to sixty days in the County Jail. Shaw and T. T. Spurgeon were arrested by Postal Inspectors Gray and Webster, about three weeks ago. At the preliminary examination Spurgeon was released.

The evidence showed that of the sixty letters sent out to various places in the East, eight answers had been received, and about $10 had been realized from the scheme. Both Shaw and Spurgeon are carpenters, and had exhibited booths in the courtroom at the time of their arrest. It was shown that Spurgeon had retired from the firm some days before they were taken into custody.

Alfred Cohen, charged with robbing the mails of a letter addressed to one of the city newspapers, pleaded guilty, and will be up for sentence tomorrow, at which time several character witnesses will be heard in his behalf.

Indictments were returned yesterday by the Federal grand jury against Jose M. Kirtch, charged with selling liquor to an Indian, and Thomas Scott, charged with being engaged in smuggling Chinese laborers over the Mexican border.

The appointment of Thomas Scott as referee in bankruptcy for San Bernardino county, for a term of two years, was confirmed yesterday by Judge Welborn.

The hearing of the Thompson case is scheduled to be held tomorrow in the United States District Court tomorrow morning.

MIDDLE WEST TEAMS SHOULD COME HERE.

Expert Diagnosis of Season Just Closed Points to the Fact that Good Material Is Going to Waste for Lack of Worthy Opponents for Teams in This Part of the Country.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

THE football season, just past, has brought out the critics and their never-ending arguments, both pro and con, on the great American game. It would seem that the Rules Committee could make changes every year and then never please all, at the same time. Many say the game lacks definiteness of play, while others say there is too much of the sameness in the style, and that kicking is the whole show.

The eastern authorities don't like so much booting, while in the West, where the Rugby bug has taken root, there is not enough kicking to please. The whole situation simmers down to the question of who you are and where you are located.

Some never stop to think that it may not be the fault of the game itself that the play is dull or ragged, but that the teams which are trying to get a little action may be weak and of an inferior type to those of former years. The game has been so arranged this season that wide awake field general can bring every style into the game and make it a pretty thing to watch, filled with dashing plays and long kicks. The fact that when a forward pass is incomplete, the team making the pass does not lose fifteen yards, gives all kinds of chance for open play.

The game between the Army and Navy and the game between Harvard and Yale were severely criticized this year, because the score was small in one case and nothing to nothing in the other. It is claimed that there was too much kicking and, for this reason, the games were dull.

Now, the affairs between Princeton and these same teams were not considered dull by any of these same critics, because the eastern Tigers had a great variety of play. Look at the Carleton Indians! No one said there was too much booting in their game. So it all comes to the question of the team itself.

The games in the middle western conference this season were all thrillers and some great reversals of form were put on record. Another point about the new football is that brains and not brawn count for the most.

This is easily proved by the way the smaller colleges stacked up against their big foes. Right here we can find some ground for the adverse criticism. The authorities in the bigger universities are loath to admit the fact that the big institutions are no longer in a class by themselves, to be feared and looked up to by the smaller fry. But, if generalship and brains are to count, why register a kick on these grounds? The American Middle vs. Stars.

AMERICAN FOOTBALL AS CHRISTMAS TREAT.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

FINALLY the question of an American intercollegiate football game for this city has been definitely settled. On Christmas Day on Harvard Field the football team of the Southern California Athletic Club will meet the star team from the Pacific fleet, now stationed at San Diego. The latter team is made up of middies who have just left the portals of Annapolis. It will be a team of officers who have been trained in one of the best football schools in the United States.

The Navy team is not just being organized for this game, but is an organization which has fought its way to fame through the ranks of the highest High School eleven and club teams on the Coast. The team weighs 165 pounds per man, net weight, and have a great record for speed and variety of play formation.

As for the local aggregation, there will be none of this "has-been" or "all-star" stuff at all. The men who will play under the colors of the Southern California Athletic Club are all picked from the local college ranks and are, at the present time, in the best of condition, having just finished the regular intercollegiate football season.

The whole idea of this game is to show the fans of the city the possibilities of the new American game, so a good comparison can be drawn between it and Rugby.

BOOST AMERICAN STYLE. The men are playing the game at this time in an effort to boost the stock of the intercollegiate game in the South, as it has not come in for its share of interest this season. In the past many of the post-season games, which have been played here, have not come up to the mark, as the men on both sides were only good for about ten minutes of real hard work. This will not be the case Christmas, as the men on the local team are trained to the minute, and better than all, are anxious to get into an old-style battle once more.

Seven of the eleven men on the Navy team have made their letters at Annapolis in the games with the Army, during the past four years. This seems like a big order, but the facts are there and we can't get back of facts. The Navy team is noted for its style of play, which is wide open and takes advantage of all the new wrinkles in the rules of today, so there need be no fear about the class of condition of these officers when the whistle blows for the Christmas Day battle.

In view of the fact that the men on the Southern California A. C. team know football and are trained to a fighting edge, all the time, between now and the day of the game will be spent in developing team play, so with over two weeks to go, the local eleven should be in fine shape for the game when time is called.

Waddell, Burns and Higgins are going to get behind the boys in the training campaign to see that no stone is left unturned, as the saying goes, to put a winning aggregation in the field.

lean colleges claim to turn out the brainiest men in the world and why should not these same brains count on the field of sport as well as in the classroom?

Now, to come nearer home. Coach Stanton of Pomona has taken hold of the new game with all its possibilities, and turned out one of the greatest scoring machines ever seen on the Coast. This team overwhelmed the Oxy Tigers by the score of 42 to 0, in a game where speed and variety of play alone enabled them to win. The Tigers outweighed the Pomona team nearly eight pounds to the man, but this extra brawn never figured at all in the contest.

From the first whistle to the last, the Pomona men were on the move and had the Occidental defense utterly at sea. After the game there were any number of eastern football fans, who saw the struggle, who said that the Pomona team would give any of the middle western aggregations a hard run, and there were a lot of teams east of the Mississippi which would be hard put to win from these same plucky little Claremonters.

It was not because the Oxy team was so weak that Pomona won by so big a score, but it was because the Pomona team was so fast they took advantage of every new wrinkle allowed in the rules, with the result that the game played was the most open and by far the most spectacular ever seen in the South.

The backfield used short and long kicks, forward and delayed passes. The forwards played wide and were ready to get into every play called. While speaking of the wonderful Pomona attack, it might be well to mention Vincent Shutt, Pomona's captain. This little man is a great field general and the bewildering attack of the Blue and White team was greatly due to his cool, yet active brain.

Now comes the hard part of the story. With this great football machine in the South, right in our midst, there is nothing for them to play. U.S.C., of course, is performing over the Rugby stuff and only with indifferent success. Berkeley and Stanford are also playing Rugby, while Oxy and Whittier are not able to give the Sage lads a hard game. Therefore, all this talk is lost.

What should be done, before it is too late, is to get some of the crack middle western teams here for a game on Christmas Day or any time during the month of December. If this game was played here it would give the football fans of the South a real chance to see what this new game of intercollegiate football really is, and see if there is anything lacking in the play, from the standpoint of interest or ability to follow the game from the bleachers.

The backs and show them the new open plays he has worked out. This is a crucial time for a game like this to be played. Rugby has taken a firm grip on U.S.C. and nearly all the local high schools and the followers of the American style have not raised a finger to show what they have in the way of a good game. It is pretty late, but not too late, to give the old game a great rally. The men who have expressed their willingness to play, realize this fact and will not go on the field for a practice romp or a little fun, but to make a showing for a great sport which looks as though it was on its last legs. This situation has been given to the Navy team and they say that the game, as far as they are concerned, will be fast and clean, but fought to the last ditch.

IN THE LINE-UP. The members of the S.C.A.C. team are requested to meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at No. 623 South Broadway, when Manager "Puss" Holbriter will explain the situation fully. After the business meeting the members of the squad will go to the gymnasium of the S.C.A.C., where the signal code will be given out. After Thursday signal practice will be in order in the gym of the club every evening for one week; after this time the athletes will be taken to Harvard field for hard work and light scrimmages. Manager Holbriter says that he will have over twenty men on the squad. New suits will be supplied with all the regular apparatus that goes with a football outfit.

Some of the men who will play on the club team are Bobby Hueston, formerly of the U.S.C. academy and considered one of the best ends in the South; Don Wallace, another U.S.C. prop, now in the University, will be at full-back, and in the opinion of a great many of the coaches last season he was considered one of the best full-backs in the game. Pearson, a former Law School guard, will be on one side of center, where his aggressiveness will help in both ends of the game.

The club is very lucky to get a field general like Tod Wright for quarterback. Tod last season piloted the U.S.C. prep, now in the Southern Intercollegiate title without a struggle and without a doubt, one of the best quarter-backs in the South today.

Others who will be on the team come from the Law School or the University and Pomona. Adamson, Olsen, Tschick, Courcier and Tommy Yabbarando, are all on the register and can be counted on for results with a capital R.

This game will be the South against the Navy, as the team which will represent Uncle Sam's bulldogs is counted the best outfit and the southern college club men will have no easy job, even though they know football and are in the best of condition.

Let's make the majority for the right man. The men have chosen the Mayor George Alexander.

E. Johnson, manager of the Standard Oil Company, is the president of a Status. If you speak of dust blowing past the morning, don't worry, an only "Barnet Oldfield" Johnson is in the high, and by the way that Status "50" can go some. A mile a minute is putting it mildly. Johnson is considering several challenges. Bob Burdett and his Benz, Ralph DeMeredon, the Mercedes, and the Brown and the Fiat that won the Grand Prize, and Ralph Mulford the Leader that won the Vanderbilt may receive a challenge almost any day.

Mr. C. Anthony will have five cars out today helping voters in the booths. If you are as to just where you vote for a Packard touring car, ball game and jump in. He will take the booth where you can cast a ballot for the right man at the time.

Mr. Woodill has turned the engine of Oakland cars loose to the Standard Oil Company. That is, the Standard Oil Company will be out to take care of the Standard Oil Company. The anxiety on the part of the campaign managers is to make good. The will, and the Standard Oil Company will carry them to the top.

Rogers' Steam is campaign in his precinct. The Standard man, who has four daughters, is pending the election, is considerable interest in this. He will have his Standard today carrying the woman, and he will carry about them, so he says.

Mr. Mason closed an order for a set of solid Diamond tires. He was dated over the top of an afternoon and tickety. He had finished the week's run for a record and was on all times when business is usually dull.

An American tourist is a beauty. The little car, in the English things the trade has to be the car preparatory to a rush.

W. H. Cowan has been enjoying, with the rest of us, the discussion of those remembrances. They were good and brought us back to the days of yore, before Ralph Hamlin was the staid handsome man and Bill Ruess the plutocrat of automobile row. Times are better than ever though, and there are more machines to be sold this year than ever before. Let's keep up the good work.

ors today. With his handsome and stylish Hudson touring car W. H.

Handsome and debonair, the dashing bachelor of automobile row, the man who has made a hit with the Martin shock absorbers and who expects ones who fear to cast their vote. May he win at least an extra hundred

Col. Arthur Jerome Eddy of Pasadena, who is both a famous athlete and a corporation lawyer of renown, has returned on his way home from Europe to clean up the fences in the Illinois Athletic Club.
Col. Eddy is the head of a leading law firm in Chicago. On his way back from Europe he stopped over to inspect the establishment.
Also he happened to notice there was a fencing tournament going on at the Illinois Athletic Club, and decided to take a hand.
He fought his way with fella with ease through the preliminaries. When he got to the finals, there were fourteen other fencers there. The finals took the form of a round robin in which each man met every other one.
Col. Eddy cleaned up the entire fourteen one after another.
He is now on his way home to Pasadena, ready for a round with the Catalina tuna, for he is as renowned a fisherman as he is a fencer, and trust the fencing teacher at the Los Angeles
Athletic Club.

U.S. TEAM CAN'T GET GAMES.
Manager "Mott" Blair of the University of Southern California basketball quintette is having the time of his life in securing opponents for games before Christmas. The team has played five games to date and has been successful in winning every one. The local high school teams have not had enough practice to put up much of an argument against the crack five from the Methodist camp and they are all unwilling to get into a contest in which they stand as little show of winning.
Blair says that he has a number of good dates arranged for next year, but he wants some practice contests to keep the players in good condition through the holidays.

WOLGAST PASSES SAFELY THROUGH.

Yesterday, the fifth day since the operation, Adolph Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, passed the crisis at the Clara Barton Hospital and all danger of blood poisoning has passed.
The attending physicians stated that signs of blood poison always develop by the fifth day following that of the operation if there is to be any danger from this source, and that if the patient passed safely through the first five days the slate is wiped clean, and the convalescence to good health is rapid and steady.

Wolgast passed a quiet day yesterday and outside of a little restlessness natural under the conditions of absolute quietness imposed upon the usually active young man, he was perfectly normal.
It is stated that the pure-ness of Wolgast's blood has had a wonderful lot to do with his rapid recovery. It is pointed out that the slight incision is healing as rapidly as in a child, and that scarcely a scar will remain where the knives of the surgeons made the incision.

There has been no one admitted to Wolgast's room outside of Mrs. Wolgast and Tom Jones, his manager, and these two have been permitted but a few minutes' conversation at any one time.
Wolgast, Jones claims, shows the liveliest interest in the daily doings in pugilism and while the physicians have forbidden him to discuss anything which might excite him he has shown a strong disgust at some of the claims that have been made by other lightweights, concerning his title.
Wolgast will be able to leave the hospital within ten days, according to Dr. Pollard, the attending physician, and after a rest of three or four months will be as good as ever.

TEAM PICKED.

Company, Coast Artillery Corps, San Diego, as range officer, commanded the Seventh Regiment competitions, to the entire satisfaction of the officers and men of the regiment. He speaks highly of the conditions prevailing on the Glendale range of A Company, particularly on the last day.

Two of the men who qualified for the team State shoot from Co. A, Lieut. Demmitt and Sergt. Declus, were members of the California State Rifle team of 1910, which competed in the national matches at Camp Perry, Ohio.

DEWITT VAN COURT'S COLUMN.

Tom McCarney has decided to hold an elimination lightweight tournament after the coming new year. His calendar is filled up until that time.
His intention is to invite all the aspiring lightweights that are eligible and have them fight it out, and the winner will meet Ad. Wolgast, the champion. There are quite a bunch that will probably take advantage of this opportunity to try and win that title.
McCarney said yesterday afternoon that, while there were perhaps a lot that would like to take a chance, that the class would be very carefully selected and none but the best would be allowed to enter. He is particularly anxious that the whole thing will be carried on to the satisfaction of all,
and in doing this it will take a lot of time and none but the fighters that are really entitled to participate will be considered.

From the present crop of light-weights there remains but a very few that are really entitled to a chance.
Among these we might mention, Mattie Baldwin, Ray-Henson, Young Erno, Mickey Gannon, Grover Hayes,
Tommy Murphy, Owen Moran, Frankie McFarland, Freddy Walsh, Henri Piet
the French boxer, Jack Redmond the boy-shag, and a host of others.
In Milwaukee some months ago,
Johnny Summers, the English boxer, then select the best lightweight in Australia to come over and at the finish we would have the legitimate lightweight champion of the world.
If these boys are matched off according to their different styles of boxing, that is to match the clever fellows with the clever fellows and the sluggers together, we surely would have the greatest tournament that ever took place in the professional fighting game. Willie Ritchie would be entitled to start with any one in that class, and by the time the tournament was near the finish our Joe Rylers might be heavy enough to enter the tournament. We also have another lightweight in this town that will bear watching and he is our new comer,
the Viking Dane, Joe Meyers.
To make the thing all the more interesting we might invite our old time friends, Jimmie Britt and Bat Nelson to enter with the rest. As the thing now stands it is hard to say how it will probably end. The showing of Walsh and McFarland was not too reassuring that they will be in at the finish.

NOBLE PEN PUSHER IS MOVED TO ROAST A BIT.

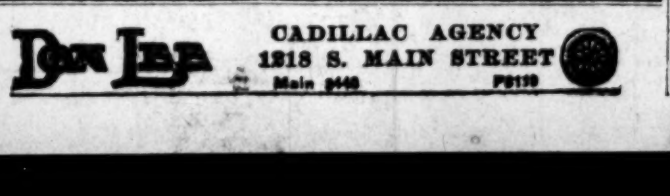

BY MARQUIS OF QUEENSBERRY.
(Copyright, 1911, by the Marquis of Queensberry.)

THERE seems a fatality above plans for lightweight contests and the latest abandonment through Wolgast's misadventure once more puts the question of supremacy on the sheet.
McFarland has engagements and many now think there is a chance of his going to London to meet Matt Wells. Eugene Corri has again expressed opinion that Wells is the on-ing champion and this indorses the favorable view I have expressed from time to time regarding the ex-amateur Englishman.
There is more than a chance that Wells, failing to find a lightweight championship contest, will take on a middleweight or two, stipulating that his opponent shall not exceed 150 pounds.

Wells is more than confident he can beat Wolgast and is most anxious about the prospect of a meeting with him. He is, I said, he is a "pot boil" with middleweights.
Matt Wells continues to give credit for a great deal of his success to his
"pot boil" with middleweights.
He is a most knowledgeable man and not at all assertive, and certainly not a flatterer. He is now busy preparing another boxer and then will turn his attention to McFarland for the six days' bicycle contest at Madison Square Garden.

Referring again to the boxing situation in England, there have been some pertinent questions asked by the Sporting Life which many here might feel inclined to give an answer. Chief of these queries are:
Does a big purse make the difference between a local boxing contest and a prize fight?
What is the size of a crowd permitted at a legal boxing contest?
How must a blow be delivered so as to keep within the law that a contestant is not trying to "subdue" his opponent?
What strength must a blow have so as not to constitute "illegal hard hitting"?

Of course, it is impossible to give an all round acceptable opinion as to what should be done in any country
the matter of legitimate boxing.
Nevertheless, many may agree that boxing contests should be a matter for local option, restricted from national or State intervention and legislation; civic bodies should be able to decide on the local sports and pastimes just as they do concerning licenses for drink or amusements. The question should be absolutely a local matter and one governed by the pre-
